Mid-Autumn Festival celebrations at NagaWorld

Phnom Penh, Cambodia, 4 September 2020 – Light up your Mid-Autumn Festival celebrations with happy reunions at NagaWorld! Savour premium handcrafted mooncakes, indulge in exquisite reunion dining, and revel in the vibrant decorations across the resort as well as heart-warming live entertainment daily from now till 1 October.

The traditional act of sharing mooncakes is something all ages can enjoy. Award-winning chefs use only the highest quality ingredients and time-treasured techniques to create mooncakes featuring sumptuously smooth paste wrapped in a delicate golden brown pastry crust. Freshly baked daily, they make for the perfect gifts for family, friends and business acquaintances during the festive period.

NagaWorld is offering 4 delectable flavours, available in either plain or double yolk varieties. The classic White Lotus and signature Pandan and Durian mooncakes are back. In addition, making its debut this year, Tiramisu mooncake is a delightful reinterpretation of the classic coffee-flavoured Italian dessert. Individual mooncakes are priced from $10, or its $36 for all 4 flavours packed in a gift box elegantly decorated in golden yellow with floral motifs to represent the bountiful harvest that the festival celebrates.

Pre-order your mooncakes by calling 015 402 345 or emailing to dining@nagaworld.com. They are available daily at Lobby Lounge and Fortune Palace in NagaWorld1, and Golden Bowl, Food Pavilion and Hall of Golden Chimes in NagaWorld2. Be quick and make purchases by 15 September to enjoy the Early Bird discount of 15% off, or order 30 gift boxes and above to get 25% off. Alipay users receive 15% off and NagaWorld Rewards members get a 10% discount. Look out for giveaway contests on NagaWorld's Facebook and WeChat channels for your chance to win a mooncake gift box!

For a special dining experience to mark the Mid-Autumn Festival together with close companions, relish the Set Menu at award-winning Chinese restaurant Hall of Golden Chimes.

Accompanying the sumptuous food offerings is a feast for the eyes and ears in the Mid-Autumn Festival Highlight Show. Appearing at 6pm daily at NagaWorld1 Lobby Stage, this musical showcase stars local and international talents performing to lively song and dance routines of modern and Chinese classic hits.
